Voice responses refers to the form of a verb indicating whether the doer of the action in a sentence is the subject or the object. The change of the voice involves three great changes: it changes the functions of the subject and the object. Change the position of the subject and the object. Change the shape of the verb. Remember: the meaning of the sentence remains unchanged. The thesis of the verb remains unchanged. The passive item is used when the agent or doer is unknown or obvious. The passive voice is used in journalistic, scientific or legal writing. In the active sentence, attention is on the doer of the action. Therefore, it is in the passive voice. The active item is more direct of the passive. Example: the girl kicks the ball. The subject (the girl) + an active verb (kicks) + an object (the ball). The phrases in the active item are generally clear and direct of those in the passive voice. The passive voice 1. The passive voice draws attention to the receiver of the action rather than the executor. Example: the dog was hit by a stone. 2. The passive item indicates the receiver of the action when the executor is unknown or does not matter. Example: the signs will be published. 3. Avoid drawing attention to the executor of the action (known as a € œ institutional institutional). Example: the fines will be collected on Monday. Active passive voice files a kite. A kite is flying. He brought a kite. A kite flew to him. A kite is taking him away. A kite was brought to him. He flew a kite. He had brought a kite. A kite was brought to him. A kite had been brought to him. A kite will be brought to him. Exercises resolved assets and liabilities:For the 9 CBSE class, change the item of the following phrases from active to passive.
